TESTIMONY FROM HIGH AUTHORITY.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS, Washington, Feb. 17, 1875.

Gentlemen:—The report having been made that Webster's English Dictionary is adopted as the standard by national officers, to the exclusion of Worcester's, I take occasion to say that so far as the Library of Congress is concerned, Webster has never been followed in orthography in printing its catalogues, reports, or any other documents. On the contrary, wherever proofs from the Congressional Printing Office embody the innovations upon English orthography which Webster introduced, they are invariably returned with corrections restoring the established spelling, as represented by Worcester and the usage of all great English writers.

Very Respectfully,
A. R. SPOFFORD,
Librarian of Congress.

THE HARTFORD
ACCIDENT
Insurance Company.
Cash Capital, $500,000.
B. D. HUBBARD, Pres. GEO. B. LESTER, Sec.
Insures against all forms of bodily injury induced by accidental means: such as dislocations, fractures, broken bones, ruptured tendons, bruises, cuts, stabs, gunshot wounds, crushing or mangling, burns and scalds, bites of mad dogs or serpents, unprovoked assaults by robbers or murderers, stroke of lightning or drowning &c.
The records of the years are filled with such accidents, and no doubt will be, so long as human carelessness exists. We are beset with them, from the cradle to the grave, and there is scarcely an individual reader, within the sphere of his own family or acquaintance, to some accident in which the indemnity offered by this company would have been a blessing worth much more than its cost.
Policies issued for long or short terms providing for weekly payments, in case of disability, and for the payment of the whole sum, in case of death.
The only company in the country that devotes itself wholly to accident insurance. A yearly policy covers accidents while travelling, while about one's business, while in the street, at home or abroad. The premium on each $1,000 is so small that every man able to secure a policy without the slightest embarrassment. For full and complete particulars inquire of L. D. DAVIS, agent for Newport and Vicinity.

Look at This.
The last ten years have been very disastrous to insurance companies in the United States. More than sixty have failed altogether, and many others have reduced their capital stock or otherwise became greatly weakened. But there are a few that by prudent management and wise liberality on the part of stock holders are much stronger now than ever. Consider the following figures taken from the reports of the Insurance commissioner, of the state of New York, for 1864 and 1874.

ÆTNA of Hartford, Assets in	1864.	$3,600,430. 93
" " "	1874.	5,845,802. 03
Increase of assets in ten years		2,045,362. 10
INSURANCE of North America,	1864.	$1,715,171. 78
" " "	1874.	3,253,000. 00
Increase of assets in ten years,		1,541,828. 29
ROYAL of Liverpool, (American Funds) Assets in	1864.	$1,827,984. 0
" in	1874.	3,073,483. 8
Increase in ten years,		1,245,499. 78
HARTFORD, of Hartford, Assets,	1864.	$1,575,920. 48
" " "	1874.	2,416,681. 51
Increase in ten years,		830,761. 03

This wonderful growth during a term of unparalleled disaster is not the result of good fortune merely, for these companies have been the heaviest losers in Portland, Chicago Boston and other cities, and have paid out millions dollars each year. The facts commend themselves to persons who want RELIABLE insurance in these days of trial. A policy in such companies is worth twice as much as one in any of the untried institutions that are springing up on every hand. The rate is the same.
Dwelling houses and their contents insured for five years at very low prices—lower in fact than is charged by many of the Mutuals where the insured is liable to heavy assessments in case of a large fire in any of our larger towns.
Policies written on all classes of property, and losses paid at this agency.
LUCIUS D. DAVIS, Agt.

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1875.

RECEIPTS.

BUTTER-SCOTCH CANDY.—Take one pound of sugar and one pint of water; dissolve and boil. When done add one tablespoonful of butter and enough lemon juice and oil of lemon to flavor.

BAKED EGGS.—Beat up six eggs, one tablespoonful of flour, six of sweet milk: melt your butter in the frying-pan: when hot, turn the whole in, well beaten, and bake in a hot oven.

RICE JELLY.—Boil one pound of rice flour with half a pound of loaf sugar in a quart of water until the whole becomes a glutinous mass; strain off the jelly and let it stand to cool. This is nutritious and light.

RECEIPT FOR BREAKFAST CAKE.—Take two and a half quarts of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of cream tartar, one tablespoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of lard, one quart of warm water; knead quick, roll thin and bake in shallow pans in a quick oven. Serve hot, with butter.

FRUIT CORN CAKES.—Put a pint of whortleberries in a bowl, add a teacupful of sugar, one pint of corn meal and a large tablespoonful of fine flour, wet with boiling water. Bake in cakes about one-half an inch thick on a griddle or in an oven twenty minutes. For nice apple cakes use sweet and tart apples chopped, instead of berries.

STUFFED CABBAGE.—Take a large, fresh cabbage and cut out the heart, fill the place with a stuffing made of cooked chicken or veal, chopped very fine and highly seasoned and rolled into balls, with yolk of egg. Then tie the cabbage firmly together and boil in a covered kettle for two hours. This makes a delicious dish, and is useful for using small pieces of cold meat.

CRACKERS DESSERT.—Choose whole soda-crackers, and lay upon a separate small plate. Pour upon it enough boiling water to soak it well, and leave none upon the plate; cover with a dressing of sweetened cream, with a spoonful of jelly in the center if you choose, or drip upon it a portion of nice fruit, canned, stewed or fresh, as is convenient.

POTATO BALLS, FOR BREAKFAST.—Boil and mash a double quantity of potatoes for dinner, season with sweet cream and a little salt: work in two fresh eggs to a quart. Mold into little balls, prick the tops, and lay away in the cold on a plate. In the morning put in baking pan and set into the oven until done to a delicate brown, which requires fifteen or twenty minutes.

COTTAGE CHEESE.—Warm two gallons of sour milk until the curd begins to separate from the whey; then put it in a coarse bag and hang it in the sun four hours; then press out the whey, and add one pint of sweet cream, one tablespoonful of salt and one-half teacupful of butter: mix thoroughly and mold into small cakes. When served, surround them with thick, sweet cream.

TO BAKE HAM.—Most people boil ham. It is much better baked. Soak for an hour in clean water and wipe dry. Next spread it all over with thin butter and then put it in a deep dish with slicks under it to keep it out of the gravy. When it is fully done, take off the skin and matters crusted on the flesh side and set it away to cool.

ERASIVE SOAP.—Recipe for making genuine erasive soap that will remove grease and stains from clothing: Two pounds of good, castile soap, half pound of carbonate of potash dissolved in a half-pint of hot water. Cut the soap in thin slices, boil the soap with potash until it is thick enough to mold into cakes; also add alcohol, half an ounce; camphor, half an ounce, hartshorn, half an ounce; color with half an ounce pulverized chalcoal.

HOMINY.—Two quarts of white corn; three half pints of white beans; two pounds of pickled pork. Wash the corn and put it on to boil in water sufficient to cover it, and as the corn swells more water must be added, so as to keep it covered all the time it is cooking. After boiling four hours, add the beans and pork, which being done, the hominy may be sent to table. Should the pork not make it sufficiently salt, more may be added. This is very nice warmed over the next day.

ORANGE MARMALADE.—The rind or peel is taken off and scraped, then boiled in water until tender, when the water is poured off, and the rind cut in thin slices, with the juice which is extracted from the body of the orange added, and set to boil again, with the addition of three quarters of a pound of sugar to every pound of matter, and in from twenty minutes to half an hour the marmalade is made. It generally comes packed in bowls.

WHITE MOUNTAIN CAKE.—Half pound sugar, half pound flour, one fourth pound butter, three eggs, one small teaspoon of baking powder, three tablespoons of water. Bake in jelly pans. Icing for the cake: Three fourths pound of sugar. Spread the icing on each layer of the cake while warm, sprinkle grated cocoanut on each layer over the icing. Cake made by this receipt took the premium at the Ohio state fair some four years ago.

HOW TO COOK A TURNIP.—To cook a turnip, writes a correspondent, is so simple a matter that there should seldom be a mistake in regard to it; yet the truth is, it is so rare to find them well cooked that few people know when they are well treated and when not. Generally speaking, this wholesome vegetable is presented in a washed-out state, so that it is quite seldom we discover its real flavor. Many will, perhaps, say that the real full flavor of the turnip is too strong, and this may be an argument in favor of the reduction of the flavor in the process of cooking. But it should be known that the saccharine and gummy constituents that are removed and therefore lost in the customary modes of cooking, are the most nutritive portions, and communicate to the dish when it is cooked, on what it may be called "conservative" principles, a far finer flavor than the majority of people have any idea of. I will ask the reader to cook two turnips in two different ways. The first is to be peeled and sliced, and left to soak in cold water for an hour or more.

The slices are to be boiled until quite tender, and then are to be drained and nicely mashed with butter. This is the most common method of cooking, and it has the demerit of washing out the gum, and the sugar, and the other finer constituents of the root, and, consequently, the flavor is very much reduced. The other root is to be washed quite clean, but it is not to be peeled, or cut, or soaked. Boil it, whole, in its "jacket." It will take twice as long to cook as the one that was cut. When, in trying it with a fork, you find it quite tender take it up, peel it, press it moderately, and mash it with butter. You will be surprised at the difference. Instead of being, as, perhaps, you will expect, "strong," "rank" or "bitter," it will be deliciously full-flavored, and will contain all the nourishment that was in it before it was cooked.

THE DAY.

The English call Gladstone the "disestablishmentarian," and yet they talk about Americanisms.

The other side of the Acapulco massacre is that Diaz, the leading Protestant, had made personal and insulting attacks on the parish priest, whose good character is vouched for by the American consul at Acapulco, and that Mr. Hutchinson inflamed the Catholics by preaching Protestantism in the public streets. So far as the latter point is concerned we fail to see that Mexico compares favorably with heathen countries. It is also said that there is no ground for suspecting any connection between the priest and the massacre. The attack it is said was aimed at Hutchinson and Diaz, and these men might have been assassinated without attacking twenty or thirty other people. It appears that immediately before the massacre sixty Sisters of Charity had been expelled from Mexico, and put on board a Pacific Mail steamer at Acapulco. This had so exasperated the people that an attack on the civil authorities was expected. This probably is the correct explanation of the affair. The people were excited by the deportation of the Sisters of Charity that they were seeking some object on which they might wreak their vengeance. The Protestants were convenient and the blow fell on them.

That elegant specimen of back handed pen flourish which a credulous public has long regarded as the sign manual of Gen. F. E. Spinner, but which is really a copy of a fancy design on the Rosetta stone, is to disappear from our battle-born and blood-stained greenback, and we shall never look upon its like again. The counterfeiters will take courage, but "the best currency the world ever saw" will lose its chief adornment. The lady clerks in the treasurer's office will weep for their best friend and the recording angel, upon whose tears the treasurer's weakness for speaking unadvisedly with his lips has made an exhaustive demand, lo, these many years, will be able to lay aside his onion, and laugh over the Presidential aspirations of conspicuous Democrats. There is scarcely a man in public life whom the country could not spare better than Gen. F. E. Spinner. For fourteen years he has been as conspicuously before the public as though he had occupied a Cabinet position, and during all that time no one, not even the most anxious seeker after scandals in the Republican party, has been able to charge him with wrong doing, mistakes or even errors of omission. Surrounded by venal and unscrupulous politicians he has kept his name as pure as that of Caesar's wife. His withdrawal from the government at the end of the present fiscal year will be a cause for the deepest national regret.

VINELAND.

THE PRACTICAL WORKING OF PROHIBITION —A GRAND REAL ESTATE SPECULATION FOUNDED ON PROHIBITION FOR ITS PECUNIARY, NOT ITS PHILANTHROPIC, VALUE —DRINKING MEN AND SOBER MEN COMPARED.—THE GREAT SUCCESS AND RAPID GROWTH OF VINELAND.

In 1861, when Charles K. Landis was only twenty-eight years old, he purchased the large tract of about fifty square miles of flat, uninviting, sandy land, in Cumberland county, New Jersey, since become famous as Vineland. He planned out a town a mile square in the midst of the tract, through which the railroad passes, having just then been completed. The town had broad avenues and 50 feet by 150 feet building lots. The suburbs he divided into village and homestead plots, and made farms of from 10 to 100 acres. He advertised far and wide for settlers for the new town of Vineland, and required every purchaser to sign a paper binding himself not to permit the sale of intoxicating drinks in the town. Mr. Landis explains as follows his reasons for founding the town on strictly total abstinence principles and his manner of accomplishing what everybody at that time deemed a visionary and impracticable scheme:—

"I was not a temperance man nor a teetotaller; my friends were not temperance people, and I had never moved with that class at all; but I had noticed this, that the men who failed in business were almost invariably drinking men, and, further, that those men who were the most successful in business were always sober men. I recalled to mind that I had never known a sober man in the city of Philadelphia to come and ask me for money, and I had always noticed that when I employed workmen the men who performed their work most satisfactorily and most successfully were the sober men. Then again, it was very important that in my new colony families should be happy. If the mother of the family was discontented, why the husband would not have the heart to go on. Well, I had observed that the happy families in this world were the sober families, and I had noticed that the discontented and unhappy families were those into which liquor had been introduced, and where the husband was not a sober man. Hence I saw that the great panacea would be the exclusion of the sale of intoxicating drinks. Consequently I decided to allow no intoxicating drinks to be sold in this place, and to have no saloons. In the second place, I would only sell land to those people who would agree to improve it, so that when a man improved his own land his neighbor would be benefited, and when his neighbor did the same he would be benefited, and they would soon have numerous houses, churches and stores: and at the same time, instead of his money going to the taverns, and instead of his rising in the morning with a headache, in bad spirits, and disheartened from the reaction of over-stimulus, his resources would be applied to the attainment of that independence at which he was aiming. He would have the muscle and the nerve to clear his land and the spirit to keep marching on in his work, instead of falling into the byways of idleness and despair. I know very well, however, that if I talked about temperance principles as a general thing I should meet with no encouragement. When I assumed the responsibility of purchasing 30,000 acres I knew that unless the population increased beyond 3,000 the enterprise would involve me in financial ruin and loss of reputation and character. I had to make 175 miles of road and incur other heavy expenses. It was absolutely necessary for me in the first place, to continue to sell land, but if after the first five years the settlers did not succeed my sales of land would cease, and probably when I had sold only 10,000 acres, and then I would have 20,000 left on my hands."

Four families were bold enough to take up their residence in this bleak wilderness fourteen years ago, and now the desert has been made to blossom, and where was desolation and barrenness is a thriving, industrious, model town of about 12,000 inhabitants; and perhaps the best comment on the success of the temperance principle as applied to towns and cities is the fact that the police appropriations and expenses of these 12,000 people is about $100 per annum!—a statement which may seem scarcely credible to New Yorkers. The recent shooting affray, which has brought this peaceful hamlet before the world a new aspect, is the first and only affair of violence known to the history of the town, and in this—by an unfortunate happening—the founder of Vineland, the man to whom it certainly owes its remarkable reputation for law and order, is the first to darken this record. Heretofore the most exciting events known in the history of this peaceful place have been the quiet escorting to the depot of a rumseller and the running over of a man on the railroad about a year ago. The public and private circles of this place, with those exceptions, have never been disturbed by any question more momentous than the important and exciting problem as to whether there should be a new fence around the graveyard.

Mr. Landis, from the founding of Vineland to the present time, has given his personal attention to all the details of the management and development of Vineland, and he well deserves the title of founder of the town. The legislature of New Jersey, by his efforts, was induced to pass an act granting to the voters of Vineland the privilege of special local option on the subject of prohibiting the sale of liquor, all general state laws to the contrary notwithstanding. At the annual elections for town officers this question is voted upon. For several years there was not a single vote recorded in favor of liquor licenses. Last year, out of about 900 votes cast only 17 were for liquor selling, and this is the largest number ever recorded in its favor. It is certain that in this unique town no liquor can be purchased anywhere, except from the drug stores upon a physician's prescription, and so great is the feeling against dealing in it that some of the druggists even refused to dispense it. Early in the history of Vineland a liquor dealer avowed his intention to test the local option scheme, and he set up a public house in the town. A mass meeting was called, at which the ladies of the place took a prominent part. Speeches were made, the whole assembly quietly marched to the house of the liquor dealer, he was requested to leave town by the first train next morning, and the value of his holding was given back to him. Everything was conducted in the most orderly manner, and the liquor seller unobtrusively left next day.

Many other reforms in social and sanitary science are carried out in Vineland, relating to labor, education, sewage, the economizing of manures, the abolition of fences, the public adornment of the country, &c. The streets are very wide, the houses are obliged to be set back twenty feet in the town and seventy-five feet in the suburbs, and each householder must plant shade trees. The settlement has about 178 miles of improved roads, twenty-one schoolhouses, from the primary to the high school, which was dedicated by President Grant last Summer; sixteen chapels and churches, fifteen manufacturing establishments, a bank, public halls, newspapers, &c. The soil is light and sandy, adapted to the culture of fruit, large quantities of which, especially grapes, are raised every year, this being the principal industry of the settlement.

In 1867 the jury of the Paris exposition awarded to Mr. Landis one of the five grand prizes of the United States, which carried with it 2,500 francs in gold and the cross of the Legion of Honor, for having established an institution which, in the way of social science, was a unique example to the world. This award was afterward contested by a German manufacturing company, who obtained the prize after a reconsideration, but Mr. Landis received the honorable mention. Mr. Landis has offered several prizes to the Vinelanders for improvements in agriculture and horticulture, and he has also done much to promote science, art and literature in the village which he has established. He is a fluent and interesting speaker, and during his visit to Europe last year he spoke in many parts of England upon his favorite schemes of colonization and prohibition. Nearly all the original tract of 30,000 acres of land has been settled upon, and Mr. Landis recently purchased 23,500 acres more adjoining.—[New York Herald.

POWHATAN'S PALACE.—A short time ago I had the pleasure of visiting what remains of the royal palace of the princely Powhatan, in this country. A huge stone chimney, built in the most substantial manner, with a broad fireplace, on which logs four feet long can be put, marks the place so replete with interest to the Virginian archaeologist. It is situated on the York, at the mouth of what is now called Timberneck creek, but the king of the forests called it Werowocomico, on the farm owned by Mr. John H. Seawell. A rude cabin has been built to the chimney, and now, around the same hearth where his Majesty, the King of Pamaunkee, and their royal highnesses, the princes and princesses gathered to smoke their native weed, a son of Africa, with his broken-stemmed chalk pipe, gathers his sable brood, all unconscious that royal feet have stood where he now stands, and royal forms have laid where he now lies. Here that event which doubtless saved the colony is said to have occurred—the rescue of Captain Smith by Pocahontas. The old chimney, known as "Powhatan's chimney," is one of the few reminders left us by time of the great Indian king. —Gloucester, C. H., Correspondence Richmond Whig.

JUSTICE COURT.

TUESDAY, MARCH 30TH.—The three complaints against William Ormsby, two of which were for illegal liquor selling, and one for keeping liquors for the purpose of illegal selling, were called up today, and he waived an examination, and thereupon was adjudged by the court to be guilty, and he was sentenced on the first two complaints to twenty dollars fine and ten days' imprisonment in the county jail, the second term of imprisonment to commence from and after the date of the expiration of the first sentence. On the third complaint, in accordance with the provisions of the law against keeping liquors for sale contrary to law, he was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs without imprisonment. The respondent paid the costs in the several cases against him, amounting to forty dollars and fifty cents, and appealed to the next court of common pleas to be holden at Newport on the third Monday of May next.

The next case called up for hearing was that of Martin V. Tifft against Richard Lawton for the alleged larceny of a pistol belonging to Tifft, in the saloon of Wm. Slavin on Kinsley's wharf on the eleventh instant.

After hearing the testimony for the prosecution the court very properly discharged Richard from custody as an innocent man and in this verdict every man, woman and child who knows Richard Lawton will acquiesce, for no one who knows him can be made to believe except upon the most incontrovertible and positive proof that he ever stole. He is a hard working, industrious, honest, and sometimes a foolish man, but never a thieving one. The fact is Richard suffered in this charge the penalty of "poor dog Tray," which is sure to be meted out to all who fall into bad company. In this case Richard in a social mood, and naturally impulsive and generous hearted, on such occasions, wanting to treat everybody, was bumming round the places whose ways are dark and whose tricks are worse than vain, and getting alarmed for his personal safety and excited seized the pistol as a means of self defence, as he stated in his card published in the News, and the statements in which are all true beyond a doubt. It is to be hoped that this little episode in Richard's fortunes will point a moral so significant as to lead him in future to keep out of bad company and evil associations which not only corrupt good manners, but get a man into very uncomfortable "fixes," and he is always liable to fall among thieves.

REDEDICATION AT JAMESTOWN.

Sunday, March 21st, was an eventful day in the history of the First Baptist church in this town, and one that will be especially cherished and memorable by those who witnessed the interesting exercises on that occasion. Through the energetic efforts of James T. Monroe of South Providence, and the generosity of the community in which it is located, this house has been repaired and modernized, and rededicated to the worship of God. The Rev. J. Mariner of the Greenwich street Free Will Baptist church, Providence, assisted by the Rev. John Pratt of the Central Baptist church, Jamestown, participated in the exercises, which were very impressive. Mr. Mariner officiated at the Central church in the morning and at the close of the services administered the ordinance of baptism to three persons. Meetings were held afternoon and evening at the First Baptist church, many from the Central Baptist participating in the exercises. The programme for the afternoon was as follows: Singing, "To Thee this temple we devote," Dedicatory prayer by Rev. J. Pratt. Sermon by Rev. J. Mariner, from Matthew, XXVII., 22nd.

"What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?" At its close, the right hand of fellowship was extended to four persons, and the Lord's Supper celebrated. It is impossible to do the speaker justice without reporting the sermon in full. It was however a masterly production and doubtless made a lasting impression upon those who heard it. Mr. M. is a most efficient worker in the Master's vineyard, sparing neither labor nor pains to advance the interests of the Redeemer's kingdom.

SUNDRIES.

He laid down the basket of chips he had pilfered, and, looking hard at the urchin who had been making a target of him by shooting at him with a "nigger-killer," said: "Whar was you raised, chile?" "Shucargo," said the young hoodlum. "In the Norf?" "Yeth, thur." "I tort so. Suddern white folks' children wuddunt do like dat. Lemme tell you, honey, manners gwine to carry you furder den money. You hear me?"—[Dallas (Texas) Herald.

During a class-meeting held by the Methodist brethren of a Southern village, Brother Jones went among the colored portion of the congregation. Finding there a man notorious for his endeavor to serve God on the Sabbath and Satan the rest of the week, he said: "Well, Brother Dick, I am glad to see you here. Haven't stole any turkeys since I saw you last, Brother Dick?" "No, no, Brudder Jones; no turkeys." "Nor any chickens, Brother Dick?" "No, no Brudder Jones; no chickens." "Thank the Lord, Brother Dick! That's doing very well, my brother!" said Brother Jones, leaving Brother Dick, who immediately relieved his overburdened conscience by saying to a near neighbor, with an immense sigh of relief; "If he'd said ducks, he'd a had me!"

The Rochester Chronicle: Come, now, fellow-citizens, this thing about T. Pott is too steep. The St. Louis Republican will assert that T. Pott is a journalist who has grounds for his course: The Milwaukee Sentinel will want to know what on hearth T. P. Pott wants in the profession. The Milwaukee News will speak of him as old Hy's son. He will be mentioned by the Boston Advertiser as T. Pott the 'steemed editor of the Maine Kettle. The Detroit Free Press will pit T. Pott against Bob Schenck on a little game of draw. All these journals having like Polly, put the kettle on, the scissorers of the press will all take T.—[Chicago Tribune.

In 1873 the number of failures was 5,183, and the amount involved $228,499,00. The noticeable feature is that there is a marked diminution in the amount of liabilities. Two causes are assignable for this, viz:—First, that the panic of 1873 caused the failure of an unusually number of large houses, thus raising very much the average amount of liabilities over all previous years. Second, that the volume of business had been greatly diminished during 1874, so that, when failures did occur, the liabilities were comparatively light; and further, that the houses which succumbed during the year were in a great degree a smaller class of traders than those of 1873, and than the average of those of several years. The number of failures in New York in 1874 was 645; the amount, $32,580,000; in in 1873, 644, and the amount $92,635,000. Since 1857 the failures have been as follows:—

FAILURES—1857 TO 1864.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

AUGUST FLOWER.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint.

More than seventy five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effect; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, impure blood, heartburn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, low spirits, &c. Go to the drug store of James H. Taylor and get a 75 cent bottle, or a sample bottle for ten cents. Try it.

☞ Just received another lot of those nice sleigh and clipper sleds, which are selling rapidly for 99 cts each; also a large lot of clothes horses 99 cts each. Coal hods, stove poker, lifter and shovel all for 99 cts. Remember Cottrell's block, 2nd door south of post office.

"WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE COFFEE THIS MORNING?" would not be asked at all if housewives would always use "Gillies' Crushed Coffee," Java quality. Grocers sell it. mar13-2w-eod-n&j

TRUE.—For years the writer has used "Constantine's Pine Tar Soap" for shaving. His skin is naturally tender. He is, in fact, "thin skinned;" but his face is always soft, smooth, and free of every kind of eruption; due, in his belief, to the regular use of this Soap. Not as an advertising dodge, but really in the interest of his fellow shavers he says this. Sold by Druggists and Grocers. mar25-eod-2w-n&j

☞ The nausea, heart-burn, and constipation which are among the most distressing attendants of pregnancy have been found easily managed by the administration of an occasional dose of Milk of Magnesia, which is now regarded as the friend alike of infants and mothers. A New Era.

In old times, at the commencement of every season it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than senseless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it. In the method they adopt they exhibit a wise discrimination, instead of resorting to the vitiated stimulants of commerce, or any of the compounds derived from them, they put their faith in the only absolutely pure invigorant procurable in the market—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their faith is well founded. Never has any tonic medicine been prepared with such scrupulous precision and conscientious care. It is a vegetable compound of which every ingredient is sound, wholesome and medicinal in the true sense of the word. Now, we have three prominent national complaints. One-half of the adult population of the United States suffer more or less, either from diseases of the stomach, derangements of the liver, or affections of the kidneys. In no other land under heaven are these maladies so general as in this country, and Hostetter's Bitters is a specific for them all, unless organic in their origin, and therefore beyond cure. And let those who are fortunate enough to be exempt from them at present understand one great fact, viz: that an occasional use of this vitalizing tonic will as certainly prevent them as the sun will prevent the earth from freezing where its genial beams descend. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate without convulsing the bowels. It is therefore a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

Such maladies as are mentioned in the treatise on dropsy, and all diseases of the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, published by William E. Clarke, Providence, R. I., proprietor of Hunt's Remedy, sap the mental powers and undermine the constitution. Every parent and guardian should possess this valuable pamphlet. Thousands who have suffered from the complaints it treats of have been restored to health by Hunt's Remedy. Pamphlet sent free to all applicants.

TWENTIETH YEAR for PYLES' SALERATUS and not one successful rival. Everybody acknowledges its superiority in all respects. It is always put up in pound packages under my name, and sold by first-class Grocers. Beware that you are not deceived by the misrepresentations of crafty dealers. JAMES PYLE, Manufacturer, mar11-eod-n&j-4w

CATARRH in the head is always relieved, and frequently permanently cured, by making a suds of "Constantine's Pine Tar Soap" and snuffing it up the nose. It can do no harm, it has done great good, and is worthy of a trial. Druggists recommend it. Send three cent stamp for Almanac to Wright Gillies & Bro., New York. mar11-eod-n&j-2w

☞ A timely dose of Milk of Magnesia administered at the outset of an attack of cholera infantum in summer, will, in nineteen instances out of twenty dissipate the disease and ensure the escape of the little sufferer from a threatening serious indisposition. Caswell, Hazard & Co, Agents. mar1-1m

GENERAL NEWS

FROM WASHINGTON.

Fitz John Porter's Case.

WASHINGTON, March 29.

It is stated by authority that Fitz John Porter's application for a review of his case was briefly though informally discussed at the Cabinet meeting on Friday. The Secretary of War was directed by the President to have the new evidence examined and a synopsis prepared and reported to the President for his information, with a view to a decision on the application for executive interposition.

The Printing Bureau.—Withdrawal of McCartee's Resignation.

Superintendent McCartee, of the Printing Bureau, has withdrawn his resignation at the earnest solicitation of Secretary Bristow, and in consequence representatives of the New York bank note companies are greatly demoralized having anticipated that with the departure of McCartee, they would be able to secure the largest share of the printing of government notes.

Ejected from Church.

Two colored men were ejected yesterday from the most aristocratic Catholic church in the city, because they insisted upon occupying seats in the body of the church, and refused to go to the gallery set apart for colored people. The affair created much excitement.

The Resignation of Treasurer Spinner.

The resignation of Treasurer Spinner became generally known this afternoon, and has been the chief topic of conversation about town. There is no doubt that it will be accepted, and that Mr. John C. New of Indianapolis will succeed to the Treasurership. Mr. New is in the city, and had an interview with the President today. He is cashier of the First National Bank of Indianapolis, and a gentleman of wealth and culture. He was a state senator for four years. During the war he was quartermaster general on Governor Morton's staff, and in that position rendered invaluable service in raising money to meet the expenses of clothing, arming and feeding volunteers at the time when a Democratic legislature refused to make appropriations for these purposes. Mr. New has not been an applicant for the office and did not know it was to be tendered to him, his name being brought forward by Senator Morton, who was consulted here when it was known a vacancy would occur. There was a conference on Saturday last between the President and the Secretary of the Treasury, at which it was agreed that the Secretary should ask for General Spinner's resignation, the latter having signified a desire several times to be released from duties which his increasing age and infirmities rendered too arduous for him much longer to perform. This plan was carried out, and on the first of July General Spinner will leave the post at which he has served with eminent fidelity for fourteen years.

The Excursion to Mexico.

The Mexico excursion party which left this city this morning comprised Senator Morton and Paymaster Cunningham in addition to those named in the despatches yesterday. The statement is published that Senator Cameron will pay all the expenses of the party, but it is a question whether the Navy department has authority to receive money for the use of the vessel.

FROM NEW YORK.

Letter From Jeff. Davis.

NEW YORK, March 29.

The following dispatch was sent to a meeting in Memphis of the friends of John Mitchel:

Gentlemen: Unable to be with you I send you my heartfelt sympathy in your proposed tribute to the patriot and devotee, John Mitchel. Together we struggled for state rights, for the supremacy of the Constitution, for community, independence, and after defeat were imprisoned together. As my friend I mourn for him, and regret his death as a loss to mankind.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Irishmen of Scranton, Pa., last night voted to raise a fund for Mitchel's widow, instead of a parade as first proposed.

French Crusade Against Masonry in New Caledonia, N. S. W.

A Sydney, New South Wales, letter of Feb. 16 says, another cargo of 160 Communists have arrived from France in a wretched condition, and been sent to the interior of New Caledonia. The governor of the French colony has been instructed to crush out Free Masonry. Several eminent merchants have been arrested and sent to France as "suspected" of being either Free Masons or communistic friends from Rochfort.

Almost a Bank Robbery.—Sudden Flight of the Thieves.

It was discovered last evening that the rooms in the building adjoining the Long Island Bank, Fulton street, Brooklyn, were occupied by bank robbers, who had torn up the floors, made excavations, and had reached the vault doors, which they had already sprung almost off the hinges. A Mr. Powell, hearing some of the robbers in the adjoining rooms, while passing at dusk last evening, met one of the unknown parties and asked to be allowed to enter his place to obtain a hat he had left there. The fellow handed him the key, saying he was going to New York, and told Powell to go and get his hat. Powell thus discovered the attempt, but the fellows had fled. A large quantity of jimmies, files, power sledges, chisels, rubber shoes, a gag and other things were found. In a few hours the bank would have been cleaned out. The robbers had evidently been at work quietly the past fortnight.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Delaware Water Gap.—The River Gradually Rising.

DELAWARE WATER GAP, PA., March 29.

The large ice gorge near this point remains the same. The river is very low here but on a gradual rise. This morning the railroad company have succeeded in cutting a channel through the long curves in the gap, which will undoubtedly lessen the strong resistance which was caused by the solid bed of ice which exists, from thirty inches to three feet in thickness, between the gap and the gorge at Shoemakers.

The snow and ice is melting rapidly today and should a sudden rain break over this part of the country, the inundation of the railroad is inevitable. In connection with the village of Water Gap, there is a part known as the Island of Cuba, situated on low ground, and which is certainly doomed to be inundated by the backwater from the furious Delaware river.

At Renovn, Pa.

RENOVA, PA., March 29.

The river rose three feet yesterday, and is now at a stand. The ice in the West branch, west of Keating, is expected to come out today.

A Chicago Editor Imprisoned for Contempt of Court.

CHICAGO, March 29.

Mr. Storey, of the Times, at present occupies the jail, or Doyle's private office, where he receives his friends and citizens who call by hundreds, with as much ease as in his own office. He expects to be released upon an order of Judge McAllister, of the supreme court, before whom application for a supersedeas has been made by his counsel. There is a good deal of excitement over the action of Judge Williams. The general sentiment condemns it as an extraordinary and high-handed exercise of power. The article criticising the grand jury and state attorney was written after several indictments had been returned against the Times, and could not therefore be construed as obstructing the proceedings of the court. The averment of the article that corrupt and disreputable men were on the grand jury, it is claimed, can be substantiated and the criticism regarded as justifiable. The feeling in this community is that the court has exercised a dangerous power and has struck a blow at the freedom of speech.

A Family Fatally Burned by the Explosion of a Kerosene Lamp.

ST. PAUL, March 29.

Sunday morning, the house of a farmer named Colson, at Parker's Prairie, twenty five miles from Wadena, on the Northern Pacific Railroad, took fire from the explosion of a kerosene lamp. The flames rapidly communicated to the night clothes of the father, mother and five children. Colson dashed out of a window and was rescued. The family were all badly burned. They all dragged themselves to the nearest neighbor's over the snow. Colson and two of the children have since died, and it is thought the mother and another child cannot long survive.

The Treasuryship.

CINCINNATI, March 29.

A dispatch to the Commercial from Indianapolis says that it is stated upon reliable authority, that the President has tendered to Hon. John C. New, cashier of the First National Bank of Indianapolis, the office of United States Treasurer. Mr. New has gone to Washington in consequence, but it is not known whether he will accept the office.

The Buell Libel Case.

ST. LOUIS, March 29.

In the case of A. C. Buell, charged with libelling ex-Senator Chandler of Michigan, in the Detroit Free Press, a year ago, and which case was appealed by Goot from the U. S. District to the U. S. circuit court on the 9th inst., Judge Dillon, of the latter court rendered a decision affirming that of the lower court and Buell was discharged.

Rain General in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.

Dispatches from various ports in Sacramento, San Joaquin and Salines valley report general rains. Crop reports are favorable. A dispatch from Victoria reports that the equinoxial hurricane on Wednesday last, caused much damage. Many buildings were unroofed and blown down, trees uprooted, and telegraph lines demolished. Bark Stella cut away her masts to avoid her going ashore. A schooner was sunk in the harbor. A number of persons were injured, but no lives were lost. Mail steamer Mohongo from San Francisco, had her paddle boxes stove, and the pilot house swept overboard. She narrowly escaped foundering.

Failure of a New Bedford Banking House.

BOSTON, March 29.

The liabilities of the banking house of S. P. Burt, of New Bedford, suspended today are $800,000; assets, claimed to be $450,000; will pay in full if an extension is granted.

The Present State Ticket Renominated by the Prohibitionists.—The Resolutions.

PROVIDENCE, March 29.

The members of the state prohibitory convention met at the state house in this city at 11 o'clock this forenoon, and were called to order by William G. R. Mowry, who made a brief address and then called upon the Rev. H. M. Eaton of Westerly for prayer. Colonel Edwin Metcalf of Providence was elected temporary chairman; H. C. Lazello of Woonsocket, George Bowen, Jr., of Newport and C. T. Cole of Providence were elected temporary clerks. The temporary organization was afterwards made permanent. The resolutions are of great length. The first proclaims that no other question is of equal importance with that of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor. The second says the prohibitory law has worked well, and promises better results the longer it is in force. The third asks for the use of every moral agency as well as the law to stop drunkenness. The fourth indorses the administration of Governor Howard and his associates. The fifth indorses the state constabulo and his deputies. A resolution offered by Mr. Conant condemned the practice of buying voters, which he understood was to be practised by a certain party. The following ticket was nominated: For governor, Henry Howard; for lieutenant-governor, C. C. Van Zandt; for secretary of state, J. M. Addeman; for attorney-general, Willard Sayes; for general treasurer, Samuel Clark.

INTERLOPERS IN CAUCUSES.—The Providence Journal says that the difficulty in organizing the Republican state convention arose from the great number of contested delegations. It adds:

"The season is not far to seek. It is to be found in what we hope will prove to be the culminating point of a series of unprincipled dominations of Republican caucuses by Democrats. The evil has been growing in many towns, and not a few wards of the city. Democrats have been called in to the Republican primary meetings in such numbers as to give the control of the meetings to those who have had personal rather than party purposes in view. In some cases the custom has become so prevalent that the better portion of the Republicans have utterly refused to attend the primary meetings. The wrong done has now become palpable. This cause alone it is which has kept the convention so long without an organization."

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1875.

English Spelling.—An Englishman distinguishes the floors of a house from tales of fiction by calling them "storey"—which would undoubtedly be condemned on the Bostonian platform—and Americans commonly misspell the word which he writes "kerbstone"; pedagogues are divided in opinion as to whether "befal," "recal," "traveller," &c., should have one "l" or two; and numerous similar instances might be adduced. Then again there are modes of spelling which, although etymologically indefensible, are almost sanctioned by general usage, as where writers and proof-readers persist in using the Greek "zeta" in the last syllable of Latin words like "civilise," or, if they be taught its impropriety in such connection (which, by the way our British con—or cotemporaries write "connexion), supplant it by an indiscriminate "s" in Greek derivatives like "sympathize." Where the Hellenistic scribe wishes to retain the "kappa," the modern proof-reader defies etymology and orthoepy by substituting a "c" in "skeptic" and its congeners, and each cites his favorite dictionary in support of his views of the question. "Spelling matches" may be of service in popularizing the respective sequence of letters in "detach" and "dispatch," "seize" and "siege," "receive" and "relieve," and may even induce the provincial journalist or padagogue not to spell the penultimate of "preventable" with an "i," or that of "admissible" with an "a"; but in the absence of any fixed criterion, the orthography of a considerable part of the English vocabulary is, like that of Mr. Weller's name, "a matter o' taste."—[New York World.

An Embarrassing Mistake.—A funny incident lately occurred in the gas office of Chicago. The wife of a member of the Illinois senate entered to pay her bill, carrying her portmonnaie, as was her custom, in her right hand. Having occasion to write her signature, she changed her pocket-book to her left hand, then started to go out. Noticing that her right hand was empty, she missed her pocket-book, and turning to a rough-looking individual who had been standing by meantime said angrily: "I'll thank you for my pocket-book, sir." Two or three of the book-keepers rushed out, expecting to see the man try to escape, but he stood still and calmly answered: "I haven't it, ma'am." "You certainly have; I laid it down a moment ago here, and you are the only person who could have taken it." "I beg your pardon, ma'am," said the stranger, but I am no thief. I have not got your pocket book." "I'll have you arrested and searched!" cried the lady. "As you please," responded the man. And as the madam tried to open the door to call a policeman, she discovered her purse in her left hand. The stranger smilingly listened to a prolonged apology.

Home Government.—There are few things in this dreary world better calculated to inspire in the masculine mind cheerfulness and a virtuous serenity than the being master of one's own household. Don't we all rejoice when Lovel the widower suddenly defies those two domestic tyrants, his children's grandmothers, and begs Bessy Prior before their faces and eyes to be his wife? Next best thing to being lordly yourself is to observe lordliness in others; therefore people will be glad to read of Mr. Driver, an excellent patriarchal sort of an Englishman, who had been in the habit of firmly and judiciously locking up his wife for 12 days or so, with nothing to eat. There is a manly energy, a kind of high moral purpose about this proceeding that is beautiful. Mr. Driver, besides keeping his authority, kept two sticks with which to threaten his spouse, if not to beat her; and to the largest of these two sticks he gave the playful and endearing name of "The Reign of Terror." Unreasonably enough, Mrs. Driver did not appreciate her privileges, and the resolute husband is now left to maintain discipline and flourish the Reign of Terror upon a deserted hearth. —[New York Tribune.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Natures Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good sweet sleep at night. It is a panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years' experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounce it invaluable:

Providence, R. I., 164 Transit Street.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

O. T. WALKER,
Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, Pastor of the M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative power of VEGETINE.

Natick, Mass., Jan. 1st 1873.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your VEGETINE a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age; for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is some discharge from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but lately uses but little, as he declares he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

H. R. Stevens, Boston, Mass.

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me to thank you, through the News and Journal, for the great benefits conferred upon me by your treatment for Chronic Catarrh. Five weeks ago, when I consulted you, I was prostrated and nearly worn out with that terrible disease. Under your treatment I began to improve at once, and in two weeks was able to resume my employment, and have continued to improve up to this time. Yours Sincerely,

J. F. HAMMOND,
Newport, March 18, 1875. No. 5 Brinley street,

STATEMENT OF MR. RICHARD STAFFORD.

Newport, Jan. 7, 1875.

W. H. Carpenter, M. D.—Dear Sir: Having received great benefit from your treatment of my case of deafness and discharges from my ears, I beg to offer you my sincere and heartfelt thanks, hoping at the same time this correspondence may be of use to you professionally. To the public I would say, (if you decide to put this in print,) that as the result of Scarlet Fever, I was troubled for the whole of twenty years with a filthy, disgusting discharge from both ears, which made me grow deafer and deafer, and caused a polypus to grow in one ear, and I received no relief until I applied to Dr. C., for a remedy. I at once placed myself under his care, and through his skillful treatment I have completely recovered from the unpleasant and deplorable condition I was in. My faith in Dr. C's skill is unbounded as I considered my case about incurable before applying to him.

RICHARD STAFFORD, No. 8 Cross street.

CERTIFICATE OF MR. JOHN CASWELL.

Newport, R. I., Dec. 12, 1874.

To the Editor of News:—I wish to recommend Dr. Carpenter's treatment to such of the community as have Scrofula. I inherited it, and it has always run in my blood, and last Fall it became terrible, injuring my health, and attacking my head and face particularly and so disfigured me that a neighbor that met me did not know me until I spoke to him. I applied to Dr. Carpenter, at the Perry House, and his medicines have met with gratifying success. My health is now good, have very little trouble with the humor, face looks natural, and I hope with a little more treatment, to eradicate the poisonous humor from my system entirely. I reside in Middletown.

JOHN CASWELL.

Catarrh and Polypus.

Home Testimony.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 6th, 1874.

This is to proclaim what Dr. Carpenter has done for me. I suffered from Catarrh 40 years, and the last 10 years my nasal passages were filled with Polypus. I employed physicians from time to time, and two years ago, went to Boston, and was doctored there three months, and left off worse than I began, and I was almost discouraged. But I felt that I must do something, for I was obliged to keep my mouth open and my health was becoming impaired. So I went to Fall River last Spring, and placed myself under the care of Dr. Carpenter. His treatment proved highly satisfactory. He removed and cured the Polypus, I can breathe naturally, the Catarrh troubles me very little and altogether I am comfortable and as well as a man 60 years of age, can expect to be, and I hope this testimony may be the means of securing relief to other sufferers. I reside in Middletown.

ASA PECKHAM.

Permanent Cures of Scrofulous Catarrh.

Testimony of a Citizen of Newport.

My son and daughter were sufferers from Scrofulous Catarrh from birth, and with discharges, swellings upon their necks; and an utter inability to breathe through the nose, they were uncomfortable enough, when we placed them under the care of Dr. Carpenter in 1865. His remedies cured them in a few months and they remain well to this day. I publish this with the hope it may be the means of securing relief to others.

A CARD FROM

Mr. John Beattie Jr.

(From Fall River News.)

Fall River, Jan. 29, 1874.

W. H. Carpenter, M. D.,—My Dear Sir:—Allow me thus publicly to express my gratitude for the great benefit conferred upon me by your treatment. I was afflicted for years with Catarrh which had become a constant torment to me, the irritation and inflammation having increased until ulceration was the consequence. Your treatment has been attended with the happiest results. I am now comfortable, my head feels well, and I believe myself cured of that terrible disease.

JOHN BEATTIE, Jr.

Mr. Beattie is of the well-known Firm of Wm. & J. Beattie, Jr., Granite Dealers and Contractors, 2 Quarry street.

A CARD FROM WALTER SCOTT, Esq.,

EDITOR OF BORDER CITY HERALD, OF FALL RIVER.

I have known Dr. Carpenter since he commenced practice in this city, and I am satisfied that he is a skillful physician and has been successful in the treatment of a great majority of the cases in which he has been consulted. Of my own personal knowledge, I have reason to testify that quite a number of the individuals cured were nearly hopeless in their condition; some about blind, others deaf, and others laboring under Bronchial and Catarrhal affections, and I have seen the same persons restored under his treatment to their normal state of health. I therefore, knowing these things, without hesitation recommend him to persons suffering from the maladies he has made his special study for years.

WALTER SCOTT.

Scrofula and St. Vitus Dance Cured.

(From Fall River Herald.)

When we took our daughter Ellen to Dr. Carpenter last May, at the Mount Hope House, she was in a terrible condition from Scrofula and St. Vitus Dance, and was not willing to go among folks, for her limbs jerked and twitched so she had not much control over them, but through Dr. Carpenter's skill she has been restored and is now well. We want this cure known, for some of our acquaintances have taken their children to Europe for treatment, thinking they could not be cured in this country. This case is well known by our neighbors.

Mr. A. D. White's Card.

(From Fall River News.)

Fall River, May 28, 1874.

To my Friends and the Public:

It affords me great satisfaction to be able to testify to the success of Dr. Carpenter in the treatment of my Ears, which were a source of trouble and annoyance to me more than twenty years. Dr. C.'s treatment restored them, and they have been well several months. I have great confidence in Dr. Carpenter's skill and success in practice, and do not hesitate to recommend him.

Catarrh and Blindness.

(From Fall River News.)

Testimony of Mrs. J. Clomb, of Fall River.

I was diseased with an aggravated form of Catarrh ten years, and in consequence my eyes became affected in December last, and grew worse until I could not go about without being led. Was under the care of several doctors and at the Boston Infirmary, but got no help until I consulted Dr. Carpenter at the Mount Hope House, April 24. Under his treatment I began to improve immediately, and now I consider myself cured. I think everyone should know there is a physician in Fall River who can cure such diseases. As I am not very well known in this city, I am at liberty to refer to W. Scott, Esq., No. 1 Ferry street, who saw me when I was in a state of Blindness and since I was cured.

GOSSAMER WATER-PROOF CAPE.

THE MANUFACTURERS claim for the above new style of cape the following:

That they are perfectly water-proof.

That, if worn in the rain twenty four hours, they will not absorb any moisture, while the old style will nearly double its weight, and not keep the wearer dry, either.

That, when rolled up, they are only seven inches long, and three inches in diameter, and can be carried in the pocket, while the old style is as large and cumbersome as a woolen shawl.

That, being so light-weight, and having no warmth, they are welcomed by all ladies for warm-weather use, or to throw over a winter cloak in cold weather.

That they are not affected by either cold or heat, neither will they become soft and sticky with warm damp weather.

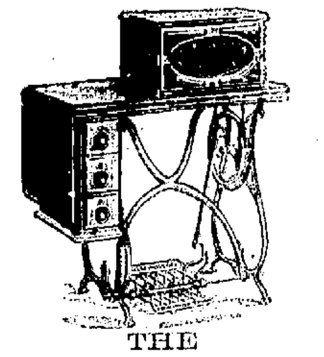

That all who have used the Gossamer Capes have expressed themselves perfectly satisfied with them.

That a lady, who has a Gossamer in her pocket, can leave the troublesome umbrella at home, and if the rain comes before she reaches shelter, with the Cape thrown over her, and the Hood over the bonnet, she is far better protected than she could be with the umbrella.
